“Greater is He than Can Be Defined”

Matthew 16:13-20

Sermon Series “Greater is He” (Week 4)

- I. God has no limits
For nothing is impossible with God
-Luke 1:37
- II. God can't be contained
“But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you; how much less this house that I have built!
-1 Kings 8:27
- III. God chooses to hide, reveal, and define himself for our sake.
The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and keep it. And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, “You may surely eat of every tree of the garden, but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.”

...Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked. And they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves loincloths. And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man and said to him, “Where are you?” And he said, “I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself.”

...therefore the Lord God sent [the man] out from the garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken
-Genesis 2:15-17; 3:7-10, 23
- IV. God's promises are limitations for our sake.
God is not man, that he should lie, or a son of man, that he should change his mind. Has he said, and will he not do it? Or has he spoken, and will he not fulfill it?
-Numbers 23:19
